RE: Letter of Recommendation

To: Whom It May Concern,

Philip Nastasi Jr. has helped myself and my business partners in the sale of an investment property recently and have had such a great experience with him. Philip is very professional and thorough with his work. He has made an amazing job at describing every detail pertaining to the sale of the property. Philip was able to describe with detail all the necessary elements and steps to make the sale successful. He was very exhaustive in answering all our questions.

Philip always arrived on time and was willing to stay longer if needed so that we could all agree on choosing the best path to take for the sale. He was always happy to take a call from us. He was very quick in doing each step of the process and was always ahead of the game. With his vast experience he was able to make suggestions that favored us. Since we were several partners, he made sure we all had the same information at the same time. I have not had someone be so complete and more, as Philip was. Thank You Philip for making this sale a success!

Sincerely,

April Hernandez
